President's Column

Thanks to the "Old" and Ring In the "New"! by Cari Chenkin

As you read this, it's a new year, and a new decade. The Sacramento Blues Society has accomplished a lot in the last year (please see Lisa Phenix's article listing 2019's highlights) and I'm happy to say we ended 2019 on a high note, with a terrific 2019 Holiday Party/Membership Meeting, new blood on our Board of Directors and Committees, and our finances on solid footing.

Some of you know, but some may not be aware, that all that's been accomplished by the SBS in 2019 is the result of hard work, time and dedication on the part of your all-volunteer Board of Directors and Committee members. I want to recognize and call them out, with grateful thanks for their contributions. You'll note that many of the individuals mentioned "wear multiple hats" and serve as Board officers AND Committee chairs or members, as well as event volunteers.

Blues In The Schools (BITS)

"Bring It On, 2020"

By Lisa Phenix, BITS Chairperson

BITS is off and running. We had two Assemblies at Regency Elementary School this past November and 350 students per assembly (700 total) were our egg shaking back-up band. With songs in their hearts, and Blues on their minds, students had a great time and left the Assemblies dancing.

BITS refreshed its Assembly materials and is happily responding to numerous requests for the Sacramento Blues Society Assembly Program to come to their school. Are you a teacher, administrator, parent or student interested in having one of our Blues Bands come to your school? Email us at lisap@winfirst.com. If you are an elementary school, you can access funding for us to come to you for FREE through the Sacramento Metropolitan Arts Council's Any Given Child program. <http://www.sacmetroarts.org/Programs/Arts-Education/Any-Given-Child>

BITS is blessed to have a committed, but small, group of dedicated volunteers, and generous donors. Please consider helping BITS, as we have much to do for Spring School Semester 2020. Email us at lisap@winfirst.com, and donate at the "donate to BITS" link at top of the SBS website. Or mail a check to SBS (for BITS use) to Sacramento Blues Society, P.O. Box 60580, Sacramento, CA 95860-0580.

Now that 2019 is over, SBS BITS thanks each and every one of you. BITS connects Blues Music with Student Education because of you. BITS brings Blues Bands to schools because of you. BITS teaches students to become blues bands because of you. BITS encourages kids to sing out their sorrow, find their own voices, write music, work together, and become tomorrow's leaders through music education because of you. Thank you so much.

Tab Benoit Plays the Harris Center

November 5th, 2019 By Barbara Katen

Wow, wow, wow. Is there anybody better? Possibly, but not if you ask me! Tab is the (my) man!

Yes, I know what I like and he's the complete package! I know what you are thinking and it's true. I love him! WOWZA. What a show!

Sitting front row and center, the show opened with the Whiskey Bayou Revue with Eric McFadden and Eric Johanson with Tab himself on drums. The two Erics are multi-talented musicians, and they were a great prelude and warm up to the Delta Bluesman himself. Recently named one of the "Top 30 Blues Guitarists" in the world today (#9 on the list) by Guitar World magazine, Tab never disappoints. Performing "Medicine" and "Shelter Me", a couple of his more well-known songs, along with many others, Tab had the crowd in the palm of his hand with his playing and laid-back humor.

I would be remiss if I didn't give Mary Carrera huge props for bringing Tab to the Harris Center and back to the Sacramento area after a Tab drought of four to five years. Hopefully we won't have to wait another four to five years for him to come back. However, this gal will travel just about anywhere to catch him!

Last year on my birthday I saw (and met) Tab at Yoshi's in Oakland and this year I saw him again for my birthday. But this year he unexpectedly wished me a Happy Birthday from the stage. He made my night. Thank you for that Mary Carrera.

All in all, it was a great birthday. Hope I can spend next year's birthday with Tab too!

With a Little Help from Our Friends

The Sacramento Blues Society could not function without the help of its many volunteers. This year, our volunteers ran the door, signed up new members, sold t-shirts, made gift baskets, raffled, created our Blue Notes newsletter, scanned the amazing art of our SBS students, taught kids about the BLUES, ran school assemblies and after school programs, created high school blues bands, performed at Blues shows, attended non profit training, wrote grants, celebrated Hall of Fame inductee musicians, donated, danced, sang and made new friends. We are a fun, "many hands make light work" bunch. Join us to meet new friends, listen to some great Blues, help each other out, and take a twirl on the dance floor. Contact lisap@winfirst.com to get more involved.

International Blues Challenge - 2019

Best Self-Produced CD

By MariLu Onweller

The Sacramento Blues Society held a competition to determine which member band will represent us in the Self-Produced CD category at the International Blues Challenge. Congratulations go to Jeremy Norris and The Dangerous Mood for their winning CD, "Deep In My Soul"

SBS has submitted "Deep In My Soul" to The Blues Foundation for consideration in this year's International Blues Challenge in Memphis, TN..

Judging will take place in three sessions by an anonymous cross-section of professionals from the Blues radio and print industry. The final results will be announced at the finals of the 36th International Blues Challenge on Saturday, February 1, 2020 at the historic Orpheum Theatre in Memphis.

Note: if you are a performer planning to release a self-produced CD between the dates of November 1, 2019 and October 31, 2020, please consider submission to the Sacramento Blues Society for next year's competition.

In September, SBS's Hall of Fame show at Harlow's was a huge success. We honored local musicians Kenny Marchese, Leo Bootes, Marty Deradoorian, Robert Nakashima, and (deceased) Gary "Whalin" Black, and danced our feet off to living legend Marcel Smith.

Finally, to close out the year, SBS presented one of the biggest rising stars in all of blues/soul/roots rock, North Carolina's Nikki Hill, as the featured performer at our annual Membership and Holiday party.

Thanks to you SBS Members, donors, sponsors, advertisers, and all of you hard working volunteers for another amazing year of the Blues.

2020 Johnny Knox Birthday Benefit

By Sally Katen

Come celebrate Johnny "Guitar" Knox's Birthday!

On January 19, from 3 to 7 pm, the Torch Club and the SBS Hall of Fame will host a memorial "pro jam" in honor of the late Johnny "Guitar"

Knox's birthday. Numerous local Hall of Fame musicians, including Ray "Catfish" Copeland, Aaron Moreno, Kenny Marchese, Ratatat Pat Balcom, Leo Bootes, plus Dave Croall, Greg Roberts, Jeffrey Felsner and Larry Schiavone all former students of Johnny's, will participate. There will be a $10 donation at the door, and all proceeds will benefit the SBS Hall of Fame.

Hope to see everyone come and support Johnny's legacy and the SBS Hall of Fame!

2019: Another Successful SBS Year

The Year in Review By Lisa Phenix

The Sacramento Blues Society wishes to thank you all for your commitment to the Blues and the Sacramento Blues Society throughout 2019. Our mission is to preserve the Blues, support Blues venues, create Blues programs and practice Blues community outreach and education.

In January, SBS celebrated the "Gone But Not Forgotten" late Hall of Fame member Johnny "Guitar" Knox with a Memorial Pro Jam at the Torch Club, which benefited the Hall of Fame. Johnny personified Sacramento Blues, regularly played local clubs, farmers markets and in front of the old Tower Records. He was a mentor to many.

SBS brought 2018 Blues Award Winner harmonica player Curtis Salgado to Sacramento from the Pacific Northwest in February. In April, SBS brought California native, shredding Blues-Rock guitarist Shane Dwight to Folsom's Power House Pub.

Throughout Spring 2019, Blues in the Schools hired 20 local Blues musicians to put on 39 education events in every nook and cranny of the Sacramento area. BITS lecturers and musicians performed for over 4000 students at 14 public, special needs, and county juvenile hall schools Assemblies. BITS ran three eight week After School Programs, training high school students to become three Blues bands. BITS ran the successful SBS Student Showcase, where these high school blues bands wowed Blues fans for a fun-filled SBS Big Day of Giving celebration at Stoney's Rockin Rodeo in North Sacramento.

Blues fans and SBS celebrated Summer Soul-Stice with Wee Willie Walker, Terri Odabi and the Anthony Paule Soul Orchestra in June at Folsom's Harris Center. Sadly, Wee Willie passed November 20, so we're grateful to have seen and heard him.

Calling All Musicians!

Plans Are Afoot for the 2020-2021 International Blues Challenge By MariLu Onweller

How would you like to represent the Sacramento Blues Society at the INTERNATIONAL BLUES CHALLENGE in Memphis in 2021?

We haven't been able to send anyone for the past couple of years but things have changed, and we're looking forward to participating.

We are not excluding anyone from competing this year. Whether you are a solo, duo, trio or full band, you are invited to submit your letter of intent to compete in the Sac area IBC Competition (date and location TBD). There is NO FEE to compete, but you must be a current member of SBS to qualify. More information will be coming soon, so stay tuned.

If you think you might be interested in competing, please send an e-mail to MariLu Onweller at vicepresident@sacblues.com. Include your name, your band's name (and members if applicable, the same for a duo act) and a phone number where you can be reached. Competition will begin in early 2020, and the public is invited to attend.

To learn more about the International Blues Challenge, visit the Blues Foundation website at blues.org.

SBS Membership - Let It Grow!

By Lisa Phenix

The Sacramento Blues Society is growing. In 2019, we gained 139 new members, from all walks of life. Blues shows in Sacramento are increasing as well, as great Blues talent has found its way to our state capitol, and SBS has been integral in putting Sacramento on the Blues map. Many events are now all ages friendly, as we invite the next generation of Blues fans and musicians into our SBS family. Willie Brown's Weekly Blues Email Blast, available to all SBS members, will keep you up to date on all the Sacramento area's Blues fun.

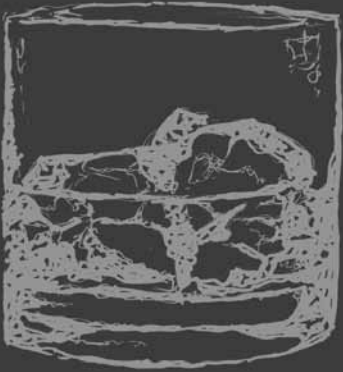

Bring your family and friends to your next Sacramento Blues Show, and encourage them to become Sacramento Blues Society members. When they join, they will get out and about, enjoy great music, and can take advantage of an SBS discount at Blues shows like Swell Productions' Wednesday night Bourbon and Blues Series, at the Starlet Lounge above Harlows (all ages welcome). Most importantly, they will be enjoying time with you and your SBS family. Joining is easy! Go to <http://www.sacblues.com/membership-form/>.

SBS Celebrates 40th Anniversary and Member Holiday Party

By Lisa Phenix, Cari Chenkin & Mindy Giles

In honor of our 40th anniversary, and fittingly, the end of a decade, the Sacramento Blues Society 2019 Membership/Holiday party was an extraordinary event. Rising blues star Nikki Hill and her exceptional band rocked the SBS party to a full house of members at Harlow's. There were many familiar faces, including blues promoters, radio personalities, sponsors, donors and musicians, as well as brand-new members, who turned out in force.

Nikki Hill truly was the snaky, sexy "Southern Fireball" at the Party. She set the tone on her first number, "Strapped to the Beat." Like the very best Chuck Berry, she grabbed her mic and belted:

"I'm strapped to the beat, really down to my soul
Make it move my feet To the Rock and Roll.
It's the groove, it's the beat, Ain't got time for no running
Stop your move when he blow that horn! Yeah, yeah!"

The packed housed house agreed and obeyed---the dance floor filled with holiday-bedecked baby boomers, who shed years and clothes over the two hour show. No Del Webb dancers this night, no ma'am She is part Tina Turner, part James Brown, and her rag-ingly talented band delivered plenty of tough originals from their newest record, FELINE ROOTS. She also poured golden angst into "Breakaway," her version of the 1964 hit single of The Soul Queen of New Orleans, Irma Thomas, clearly one of Nikki's heroes. And her take on "Down Home Girl," the Rolling Stones song (also 1964) ratcheted up the room heat. In a righteous world, NIKKI HILL and band should be on tour with THAT band.

The evening served as our Annual Membership meeting, as well as a social occasion, and was the culmination of our elections for the 2020 Board of Directors. Secretary Barbara Katen counted the ballots, and President Cari Chenkin announced the newly elected Board members, including: Lisa Phenix, Rick Snyder, Renee Erickson Sullivan, Rich Gormley, and Art Quinn. They join current Board members Cari Chenkin, Barbara Katen, Sally Katen, Jim Tatol, MariLu Onweller and Doug Pringle. We're looking forward to a great 2020, guided by their leadership.

Also a featured part of our Holiday program was the presentation of the annual Valeriejeanne Anderson Outstanding Volunteer award. This year's recipient is none other than our favorite emcee, Dave Alcock. Dave has served on the SBS Board for many years, in various capacities; has served as SBS Webmaster and has been involved in Blues in the Schools for over 20 years. His role in BITS has been absolutely essential and includes scheduling the many BITS

Assemblies throughout Sacramento area schools, as well as being our liaison with Sacramento Metropolitan Arts Commission. He has also run BITS fundraisers, is the stage manager for the annual BITS student showcase and all-around troubleshooter for all things tech, construction, etc. Dave's contributions cannot be overstated, and we're proud to honor him for all his hard work and support.

We offer our heartfelt thanks to all our SBS volunteers who made it all happen. Lisa Lowe rocked the 50/50 Raffle (the SBS member who won, kindly donated her share back to the SBS!). Many folks worked the door throughout the night signing in members, signing up new members, taking member ballots and encouraging all to select SBS as their Amazon Smile charity of choice.

Thank you all who have signed up; so many of you were so cool about taking the time to do it. Thanks to all who donated toys to our toy drive; Jan Kelley and Bob Cosman took in the gifts (the bins were overflowing just like Santa's sleigh) for Stanford Settlement's Christmas Project. And all kinds of folks, including professional photographer Steve Martarano, shot pictures of the fun for posterity. Check out some of his work in this issue.

SBS thanks each and every one of you for making the Sacramento Blues Society one of the best non-profit organizations in Sacramento.
